CTREE hopes everyone is having a happy and healthy summer!
There have been some new and exciting happenings at CTREE this summer!

CTREE Summer Horsemanship Program

For the first time ever, CTREE opened its barn doors to new and current riders who were interested in spending their summer days with horses. Our summer program is open to riders with and without special needs, allowing many riders to attend with a sibling or friend! Thanks to our wonderful volunteers we had a successful week in July learning about horses and taking care of them with riding, bathing, horse crafts and more! Participants also got to color Mosely with chalk turning him into a beautiful rainbow horse! Our August horsemanship program week is full and we are planning more weeks for next summer and school breaks! Thank you to everyone who donated to our camp scholarship fund!

CTREE Staff Updates

Congratulations to Melanie who has been promoted to Administrative Manager/Event Coordinator! In her new role Melanie will be responsible for the day-to-day running of the office as well as coordinating many of our fund-raising events!

Congratulations also to our therapeutic riding instructors-in-training, Maggie and Renee! Both passed their PATH International instructor certification! Thank you to everyone (staff, volunteers, riders, families) who helped them through the process.

CTREE is looking for additional part time help:

- helping to care for our horses in the barn
- teaching lessons (must be certified) - Saturday mornings and weekdays
- administrative help in the office

Please call or email Melanie or Karen if interested or for further details.

This summer CTREE welcomed our first intern! Olivia Hult, from New York City, will be a freshman at Villanova University this fall, and has been riding horses for more than 10 years. She started volunteering with CTREE in 2018 for a school project and instantly fell in love with the organization. This summer she wanted to help in a different way and is working in the office and helping with the Horses Changing Lives event. She is also learning about the "behind-the-scenes" of an organization like CTREE. Her biggest takeaway is: "it requires much more work to run the programming of CTREE than I originally thought!"

Mose Knows...

"This summer something strange happened at the barn. I was woken up bright and early to a group of riders and volunteers who wanted to hangout with me! Since I'm more used to my afternoon lessons, I asked Karen what was going on...to which she responded: "We are starting our first summer camp!" I'm not really sure what a "camp" is. All I know is that it was a great week of baths, snacks, balancing challenges, and magically turning into a rainbow for a chair! I hope summer camp lasts forever!"
