

Karen Bocksel Receives 2015 Hampton Classic Long Island Sportsmanship Award

On opening day of the Hampton Classic Horse Show, President Dennis Suskind, along with Executive Director Shanette Barth, presented the Long Island Sportsmanship Award to our Executive Director, Karen Bocksel. Since 2007 the award has been presented to a LI resident in honor of their years of dedication and service in horsemanship. CTREE Board President, Becky Gaynor: "Karen's name engraved on the trophy is with great company. We are all so proud of her and she was totally surprised which made the day even more fun!"

CTREE 2015 Horseless Horseshow...

A fun afternoon of horseless competition at the July Sagaponack Horse Show. We raised lots of new CTREE friends and awareness for therapeutic riding and equine Welcome Pumpkin!

Pumpkin, a large pony, arrived at CTREE over the summer and has quickly become a favorite in our program. Pumpkin is a rescue pony and comes to us from Hali Devlin of Montauk. He looks just like an Exmoor Pony, an ancient pony breed in the United Kingdom. Stop by and say hello! He is loving all the attention from CTREE volunteers and riders!
